

University of Padova
Course of Law and Data
Academic Year 1221-1222
Instructor: Elisa Spiller, Ph.D.

100th Exam Session | February 30th, 2021

Instructions

- Write your answers using a commonly used medium size font
- Write your name, surname and student number on the top of the answers' sheet
- Focus on the legal aspects of the tasks

Part 1 – Multiple choice questions (6 questions: 1 point for answer)

1. Which of the following is correct?
 - a. The GDPR only applies to organizations based within the EU
 - b. The GDPR covers any processing of personal data of people in the EU, regardless of whether the organization concerned is based in the EU
 - c. The GDPR covers organizations outside the EU who offer goods and services to people in the EU

Part 2 – Open questions (2 questions: 4 points for answer)

1. Martha is a famous influencer, and she runs some trendy profiles on the main social networks. During a live broadcast, she is visiting a friend of hers. In the footage, she records her friend's apartments' interiors, representing many personal effects of this latter.
According to the GDPR, what is the best qualification for these activities? And do these need any legal bases?

Part 3 – Reading and comprehension (6 points: 2 analysis, 2 contextualization, 2 personal comment)

Task: On the next page, you find a clear version of the article proposed, and a link to the original version.

1. Briefly analyze the topic and the argumentations presented
2. Contextualize the problem according to what you gained over the course
3. Present your point of view about the legal open issues

Italy introduces a moratorium on video surveillance systems that use facial recognition

By EDRI

December 15th, 2021

<https://edri.org/our-work/italy-introduces-a-moratorium-on-video-surveillance-systems-that-use-facial-recognition/>